... was suddenly abducted by
Hermes the god!

"It's Zeus's order to take you to Egypt"

Confused by his divine navigator, Hermes flew north instead of south, towards Croatia instead of Egypt and landed on Krk island instead of Proteus palace!

"Where am I?" cried out desperately the beautiful Queen. "Who's that little boy over there?" said she.

The little boy said his name was Steve and asked her to follow him. She new that once she goes where he wants her to there is no going back. The little boy guided her through the forest and mountains for two days. She eventually started to forget the path back.

Once they got there Steve introduced her to children, Fran and Ana, who were just standing there doing some magic. They taught her to do magic and gave her a wond. The catch was that if she used it for evilshe wont get a happy ending. In the beggining she was very carefull with using it. She only used it to get back and help people in Sparta. To make their lives easier. .

But then she got the idea to take down Egypt since she thought that they had something to do with the god that made her go to Krk. Because she used it for evil she died in the battlefield. The bad ending got her.

Or not ? Suddenly she woke up! It turned out that from her panic and exhaustion she had fainted while they were walking in the forest with Steve.

When she woke up she saw Steve distraught about the situation and asked her "are you okay?". Eleni asked him shocked about what has happened and then she realized that she was fainted all that time.

Steve said "we have to walk 1 more mile to introduce you to Fran and Ana", Eleni didn't mention a thing about the children in her dream as she thought it was a coincidence but when they arrived and she saw them doing magic she was sure that something was wrong but again she did not mention anything. When they finally gave her the wand, just like the dream that she saw she could not be more sure that it was the gods' symbol for her to not do something vindictive towards someone.

But she ignored it. She took the wand and ran away from the forest and reached a nearby village. With her beauty, she persuaded the peasant to take her away from Krk. After several hours of rowing, they arrived at the coast of Kraljevica. Using her wand, she created a huge castle in the forests of Kraljevica. She was bored, so she went to the village. With her wand, she led the children to follow her to the castle. There she captured them and ordered them to entertain her so that she would not be bored.

Helena was bored, so she started new adventures...

After a long time, Helena moved to live in the Trsat castle. She was bored alone in the castle so she wanted to have kids. She was looking out the window one day, and then she saw three kids, who were Martin, Ivan and Stjepan. She heard that they were talking about the hidden treasure in the cave. Then she started to follow them into the cave. Then they found the treasure, then Helena took the treasure and kidnapped the boys. After that, she started to sail to Italy with the boys and the treasure, and they got into a giant storm and fell off the ship. After some time Helena woke up on the coast of Greece after many years, and the boys woke up on the beach of Poreč and traveled again to Trsat.

Then, Eleni frustrated returned to Sparta. There, she found a big treasure just like the treasure the boys have found. Not only that, but while she was shocked and thrilled a girl appeared in front of her. The girl was her lost daughter who had been missing for years. After that, Eleni forgot about the treasure because the real treasure was hugging her. Both of them were crying in each other's arms but, actually, they lived happily ever after...
